volume was devoted chiefly to a discussion of the importance of Slavery, more useful for general reading. The plan for the volume will be modified, so as to embrace more respectably the rights of our cause, and yet worthy of present-day Anti-Slavery Movement will be its leading publication, cheap, convenient, and for extensive circulation and distribution. It is particularly needed at the present time, and partly because we are now in the Anti-Slavery Sentiment, although the public mind, seems a well-developed common sense, and it is understood, to secure it due weight at the Ballot-legislation. To quicken this sentiment in aid to giving it its form and method, and to the people, the two-fold FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

"FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE" will be issued the first of every month, in royal octavo form, and is composed chiefly of such papers from Common Era as shall be peculiarly anti-slavery distribution. It will be sent gratis to all subscribers, and will be an annual, numbers constituting a volume:—

Organization of the Republican Party in New York State.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 26, 1855.

The Convention met at noon, the whole State being fully represented, with the exception of Suffolk, Sullivan, Rockland, and Putnam counties, and a few absentees from New York city and other places.

Of the 256 delegates, more than 200 were on hand.

Mr. Blunt called to order, and named the Hon. Reuben E. Fenton, of Chautauque, for President, which was voted by acclamation.

Mr. F. made a brief speech, which was loudly applauded.

The following Vice Presidents were then chosen: Wm. Curtis Jones, Minthorne Thompson, Deodat Wright, James T. Masters, Dan. Wardwell, George W. Pratt, John W. Stebbins, Philip Donaham, and for Secretary, T. S. Berry and Jacob J. Werner.

The Convention being organized, on motion of Mr. Blunt, a committee of two from each judicial district was appointed by the Chair, to confer with a similar body from the Whig Convention, in order to effect union of action between the two Conventions. The following is the Committee:

First District—Joseph Blunt, L. Sherwood, Second—Parker Gowin, John Jay.

Third—John Ferra, Jun, Chauncey P. Williams.

Fourth—Wm. B. Harris, James Reddington, Fifth—Hugh McAllister, Nathan Soule.

Sixth—Benj. F. Tracy, S. Babcock, Seventh—Wm. Miller, Rowell Hall.

Eighth—Austin Smith, Peter P. Murphy.

Mr. Blunt moved that the Convention adjourn till the 27th inst., to hear the report of the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Greeley suggested that the committee be empowered to report a platform of principles.

This was voted, and Messrs. J. B. Gale and J. H. Martindale were appointed additional Secretaries of the Convention.

Mr. Blunt, from the Conference Committee, reported that they were cordially received by a committee of sixteen from the Whig Convention, and recommended that the Committee of sixteen from each Convention, to form a platform, and one of thirty-two from each Convention, be raised to nominate candidates.

Mr. Owens, of Hecstee, thought it best that each delegate should name his candidates.

Deodat Wright thought the Conventions should be kept separate; and, in order to do so, proposed to adopt the recommendations of the committee.

Report adopted.

Preston King moved that the two committees be appointed by the Chair.

Mr. Stebbins, of Monroe, moved, as an amendment, that the respective delegates from Judicial and Senatorial districts nominate their respective committee-men.

The motion, as amended, was passed.

The Committee on Platform was appointed from the following Judicial districts: 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22d, 23d, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32d.

Littlejohn and Sherman; 32d, Messrs. Littlejohn and Sherman.

The Convention then adjourned for an hour. At three o'clock, the Convention again assembled.

The Chairman of the Conference Committee reported the plan agreed upon, as follows:

That each convention should consist of sixteen—two from each judicial district—as a Committee on Resolutions; and another of thirty-two—one from each Senatorial district—as a Committee on Nominations.

A motion was made, that the committee be appointed by the Chair.

An amendment was offered, that the members of the committee be chosen by the delegates from the various districts.

After a discussion by Mr. Rice, of Chautauque, and Mr. Stebbins, of Monroe, the motion was carried.

Mr. Brown, of Lewis, proposed to divide the question, giving the appointment of the Committee on Resolutions to the Chair, and the Committee on Nominations to the delegates from the Senatorial districts.

Mr. Littlejohn, of Oswego, opposed the division, and recommended that the original motion be adopted nearly unanimously.

The Chairman announced the following Committee:

1st, Messrs. Morgan and Charles S. Tappan; 2d, J. H. Jennings and A. Hadden; 3d, A. M. Vedder and J. H. Ramsey; 4th, Charles Schuchert and J. D. C. Leitch; 5th, John and E. A. Brown; 6th, George A.
